Differentiated Instruction Made Easy

Hundreds of Multi-Level Activities for All Learners
Phyllis Kaplan et al. (Grades 2–8)
This hands-on resource is designed for teachers to support the individual learning needs of their students as they participate in similar tasks. Teachers will find hundreds of creative ideas that will motivate and reinforce learning for all students. The book’s dynamic activities are targeted to specific subject areas and will help students to experience success despite their learning challenges. Subject areas include: reading, spelling, writing, math, history, geography, science, media, art, music, and service learning. 224 pages. DKDIM • $27

Lesson Design for Differentiated Instruction

Kathy Tuchman Glass (Grades 4–9)
Differentiation allows teachers to target student needs and engage all students according to their learning preferences. Designed for teachers who are new to differentiating instruction, this book provides step-by-step guidance for creating meaningful lessons in language arts, math, science, and social studies at the upper elementary and middle school levels. Plan differentiated lessons that will promote learning for every student. 216 pages. DTLD • $39

Differentiating Textbooks

Strategies to Improve Student Comprehension and Motivation
Char Forsten, et al. (Grades 3–12)
If you use textbooks as part of your curriculum, this book is for you! Teach to how your students learn, not to your textbook. This easy-to-use resource provides over 80 step-by-step strategies for you to use with your textbooks to help build comprehension while also keeping students’ interest high. One strategy per page with helpful graphics and an extensive reproducible section. 160 pages. DFDT • $26

Differentiated Instruction in Mixed-Ability Classrooms

How to Differentiate Instruction in Mixed-Ability Classrooms
Carol Ann Tomlinson (Grades K–12)
One of the most popular differentiated instruction books! This extended and updated edition includes examples and field-tested strategies to help teachers succeed in today’s increasingly diverse classrooms. Learn proven ideas for how to match instructional approaches to the readiness, interests, and talents of all students including learning centers, hands-on activities, contracts, and investigative projects. Plus, read about new ways of structuring lessons to provide “scaffolds” for the lesson content, the procedures used in learning, and the products of learning. 117 pages. DTHDI • $25

The Differentiated Classroom

Responding to the Needs of All Learners
Carol Ann Tomlinson (Grades K–12)
How do you divide your time, resources, and efforts to effectively instruct your students of diverse backgrounds, readiness, skill levels, and interests? Tomlinson shares the latest research on learning, education, and change that supports differentiated instruction. She offers much more than merely filling the pages with real-life examples of teachers and students using and benefiting from differentiated instruction. She guides you through small changes, then even larger ones, until differentiation becomes a way of teaching for you and your students. 132 pages. DTDCEV • $30

Visit Us Online! www.KaganOnline.com

Call to Order 800.933.2667
Differentiated Instruction SmartCard
Meet your students’ unique learning needs with a differentiated approach to teaching. This SmartCard addresses common questions about Differentiated Instruction, outlines the many ways in which students differ, and provides practical tips for managing the DI classroom. It features strategies and insights on how to differentiate the various aspects of instruction including: flexible grouping, assessment and evaluation, instructional materials, student support, products and presentations, instructional strategies, time and workload, difficulty, curriculum, and recognition. Use differentiated practices to help students reach their potential! TD1 • $4

Data Driven Differentiation
In the Standards-Based Classroom
Gayle H. Gregory & Lin Kaamich (All Grades)
Data-driven instruction, standards-based teaching, and high-stakes testing are the realities for today’s schools. Learn to use classroom data to create a positive climate, differentiate instruction for student learning styles, and create effective pre-assessments, formative assessments, and final assessments. Chapters include: Collecting Data to Create a Positive Classroom Climate, Adjustable Assignments for Differentiated Learning, Instructional Strategies That Increase Student Learning, and Data Driven Lesson Planning for Differentiated Learning. 224 pages. DGKDD • $37

Differentiated Instructional Strategies for Reading
In the Content Areas
Carolyn Chapman & Rita King (Grades K–12)
Help students become confident, eager, and fluent readers. This straightforward, easy-to-use handbook provides creative yet substantial ideas and methods for infusing phonics, word analysis, vocabulary development, and comprehension strategies into subject-area instruction. A creative, eclectic blend of differentiated instruction, multiple intelligences, scaffolding, constructivism, and cooperative learning methods and activities. 216 pages. DCKDR • $35

Differentiated Instructional Strategies for Writing
In the Content Areas
Carolyn Chapman & Rita King (Grades K–12)
Develop self-directed and confident writers. This concise guide helps you work with each student’s unique skills and needs so that every student learns to apply information, demonstrate content mastery, think and write creatively and critically, and solve real-world problems. 176 pages. DCKDW • $35

Making Differentiation a Habit
How to Ensure Success in Academically Diverse Classrooms
Diane Heacox, Ed.D. (Grades K–12)
Strategies to help teachers seamlessly integrate differentiation practices into their daily routines. Features: cutting-edge research that connects differentiation and Response to Intervention (RTI), an easy-to-follow structure that helps you experience success in the classroom, practical and specific tools, surveys, templates, and checklists, in-depth information on assessment, choice opportunities, tiered assignments, grouping methods, student independence, grading, differentiating for gifted learners, teacher leaders, and schoolwide action plans. 192 pages. DHMDH • $40

Differentiated Instruction
Different Strategies for Different Learners
Char Forsten, et al. (Grades K–8)
Students’ needs are varied. So you need a variety of strategies to teach different learners. That’s exactly what you’ll find in this book—119 strategies. Strategies are arranged into grade level within each of the six sections: classroom management, community building, teacher’s toolbox, literacy, math, and assessment. 148 pages. DFD12V • $23

Differentiation for Gifted Learners
Going Beyond the Basics
Differentiated instruction for gifted and talented students must go beyond adjusting content levels, task complexity, or product choice. For the first time, this book connects the unique learning differences among gifted and talented students to the specific teaching methods used to tailor their educational experiences. Topics discussed include Common Core State Standards, real-world problem solving, abstract thinking, interdisciplinary concepts, authentic products, learning autonomy, accountability, grouping practices, affective curriculum, 21st-century skills, Advanced Placement and Honors classes, IB programs, underserved populations, and twice-exceptional learners. Includes downloadable digital content. 212 pages. DHCDG • $40

Experience a Kagan Cooperative Learning Workshop!
Kagan is the leading provider of cooperative learning workshops. Why are Kagan’s workshops so popular? Simple. Because Kagan makes full student engagement a snap. Kagan will teach you easy-to-use structures to get all students actively involved through team and pair work. Students love working together and learn much better through the high level of interaction—their test scores prove it!

Workshop Highlights
• Take away structures that really make a difference
• Form effective teams to maximize tutoring and learning
• Create a caring and cooperative class
• Make teamwork fun and successful for all
• Manage the cooperative class for success

Register for a Kagan Workshop 800.266.7576

It’s All About Engagement!