Character Quotations
Activities That Build Character and Community
Tom Lickona & Matt Davidson (Grades 3–8)
From preeminent character education advocates comes a surprisingly simple, yet powerful approach to building good character—through quotations. Exploring quotations about specific virtues and character is a wonderful way to share with students the wisdom of the ages and the importance of developing good character. One virtue is highlighted for each of 36 weeks. Each virtue of the week includes 5 reproducible quote-of-the-day pages, ideal for making a transparency of the quote or posting it on a bulletin board to share with students. Each week also includes a teacher’s guide for the virtue with a kid-friendly definition of the virtue, reflection questions for each quote, action assignments for the week, and a full-page, reproducible illustration of the virtue in action. Includes special chapter on cooperative structures to promote interaction and discussion over the quotations, virtues, and the concept of character. Build character with this ready-made character development program! 320 pages.

BLDC • $29

Portraits of Character Combo
Claudia Cangilla McAdam et Al. (Grades 3–8)
Develop your students’ character through positive role models. In each of these two books, there are 24 reproducible stories of people who exemplify positive character attributes. Some stories are about well-known individuals, celebrated for their positive contributions to others, to society, and to the world. Many stories focus on everyday heroes: ordinary people in extraordinary circumstances. People who rise to the occasion. People who sacrifice personal safety for the sake of others or dedicate their lives to a worthy cause. Both celebrities and everyday heroes serve as positive role models for students. Each portrait includes a teacher guide that highlights the desirable traits, including thinking questions and writing ideas about the story and character. 148 pages each. Regular price $38. Combo price $52 • CPOC Save $6! Books also sold separately.

• Book One BMP1 • $19
• Book Two BMP2 • $19

Emotional Intelligence SmartCard
Boost your students’ Emotional Intelligence with this SmartCard. In this colorful 17” x 11” quick-reference card, you will find everything you need to get started with emotional intelligence. It includes an understandable synopsis of valuable information you’ll be “happy” to know about including the origin of EQ, Emotional Intelligence defined, the 5 dimensions of EQ, the rationale for building students’ EQ, and the most important implications for teachers. Inside, the 5 dimensions are described in detail, and practical classroom suggestions are provided. On the back, you will find 17 emotion activity ideas that you can use with the hundreds of emotions listed from A to Z! You and your students will be ecstatic, elated, empowered, enthralled, excited, exhilarated, and exuberant as you explore the world of emotions with this little gem. TEI • $4

Character Education SmartCard
Help your students develop character virtues! In this SmartCard, you will find the answers to some frequently asked questions relating to character education: What is character education? Why should schools teach for character? Shouldn’t parents teach for character? Won’t teaching character virtues interfere with academics? You will find an A to Z list of nearly 100 virtues to choose from in developing your own character development program. Share with your students the descriptions of the dozen core virtues. And use the wealth of ideas and activities to develop character in your class and school, including how to integrate character into your curriculum. This quick-reference card is another great SmartCard you’ll want to keep within arm’s reach. TCE • $4

Personal & Social Skills
Higher-Level Thinking Questions
(Grades 3–12)
Stretch your students’ interpersonal and intrapersonal intelligences with these ready-to-use questions and activities. This book is brimming with questions on topics such as: All About Me, All About School, Esteem Building, Emotional Intelligence, Lying, Manners, Multiple Intelligences, My Favorites, Sticky Situations, and more! Questions are designed to promote higher-level thinking and interaction on a range of personal and social skills issues: “If you could be anyone else for a day, who would you be? Why? Who is your favorite musical group? If you were going to write a magazine article about the band, what would you say? Attitudes are contagious. Do your friends drag you down or bring you up?” Questions are provided in convenient reproducible question card format, perfect for a variety of engaging cooperative discussion formats provided and journal writing. Boost your students’ EQ with these provocative questions and activities. 160 pages.
BQP • $19

Developing Character
Higher-Level Thinking Questions
(Grades 3–12)
Respect! Responsibility! Integrity! Honesty! How do you develop these valued character traits? In this book of questions, you will find hundreds of questions, quotations, and dilemmas to explore and develop character. Use quotations by famous folks as a springboard for writing and discussing, such as the following by Anne Frank: “The final forming of a person’s character lies in their own hands. Why is your character ultimately your own responsibility?” Use dilemmas to have students evaluate their own values and behaviors: “If someone doesn’t treat you with the respect you deserve, would you treat them with the respect they don’t deserve? Why or why not?” And have students examine their own traits and those of others with provocative questions such as: “Are there ever situations where it is best to say something you don’t believe?” Questions are provided in convenient reproducible question card format, perfect for the engaging cooperative questioning activities provided. 160 pages.
BQCD • $19

Call to Order 800.933.2667

Character & Emotional Intelligences
It’s All About Engagement!
First Class Character Education Activities Program

Ready-to-Use Lessons & Activities
Michael D. Koehler & Karen E. Royer (Grades 7–12)
This resource gives secondary teachers and counselors 95 ready-to-use lessons with reproducible activity sheets to promote healthy character development in students. Major topics covered include: the nature of good character, student behavior, motivation, communication, family involvement, anger management, stress reduction, dealing with failure, impulse control, violence, prejudice, discrimination, stereotyping and sexual harassment, self-understanding and self-acceptance, caring about the school, using appropriate language, maintaining personal appearance, and volunteering. 432 pages.
DKRFC • $35

New Lessons & Activities
Darlene Mannix (Grades K–6)
This straight-forward resource gives teachers, counselors, and parents over 140 common-sense lessons with reproducible activities for developing traits selected as representative of good character, such as honesty, generosity, and fairness. This guide is organized into three sections focusing on respect for self, respect for others, and a positive outlook on life. Each lesson defines a specific character trait, shows children how to recognize the trait, and provides opportunities for children to apply the trait in their own daily lives. 400 pages.
DMCBA • $30

Poster Projects for Personal & Social Skills
Students build self knowledge, teamwork skills, character, and self-esteem as they create poster masterpieces. Each set includes 32 of the same 11” x 17” poster pages. $7 each
- All About Me PPAM
- I Have Character PPCH
- I Have Self-Esteem PPSE
- Our Team PPOT

Developing Character CD & Lyrics Packet
Clint Klose & Larry Wolfe
Teach character through music! Music touches our hearts and our souls. And now, you can use music to help your students develop positive character traits that will serve them for life. Your students will enjoy singing these whimsical lyrics set to well-known children’s tunes. Students sing to learn about citizenship, compassion, cooperation, courage, friendship, honesty, perseverance, pride, respect and wisdom. Each set includes a CD and a reproducible lyrics packet.
- Primary—(Grades K–2) 35 tracks, 36 minutes. LCP • $16
- Intermediate—(Grades 3–6) 32 tracks, 57 minutes. LCI • $16

What Do You Stand For?
A Guide to Building Character
Barbara A. Lewis
Learn how to teach for character and raise good kids in a time of declining moral values. These valuable books invite kids and teens to explore and practice honesty, kindness, integrity, tolerance, respect, and more. Inspiring quotations, challenging dilemmas, activities, and true stories of real kids help students explore what they stand for at school, at home, and in their community. Students are encouraged to understand themselves better, develop the traits that are most important to them, and become their best selves.
- For Teens—(Grades 5–12) 284 pages. DLWSF • $20
- For Kids—(Grades 2–6) 172 pages. DLWSK • $15

Building Character Through Cooperative Learning DVD
Featuring Dr. Spencer Kagan (All Grades)
Now, for the first time on video, Dr. Spencer Kagan outlines the value of cooperative learning in character education. You’ll learn a step-by-step process to incorporate proven cooperative strategies that build character. Observe classrooms where cooperative learning is put into practice, emphasizing the natural development of character and social skills through daily practice. See why cooperative learning is one of the best ways to develop core virtues such as personal responsibility and respect. Learn how to positively address emerging issues such as student diversity, inclusion, and heterogeneous grouping. You’ll achieve higher standards, both in academic and character education, through this insightful and instructional video. 38 minutes. DKB • $70

Building Character Through Cooperative Learning DVD
Featuring Dr. Spencer Kagan (All Grades)
Now, for the first time on video, Dr. Spencer Kagan outlines the value of cooperative learning in character education. You’ll learn a step-by-step process to incorporate proven cooperative strategies that build character. Observe classrooms where cooperative learning is put into practice, emphasizing the natural development of character and social skills through daily practice. See why cooperative learning is one of the best ways to develop core virtues such as personal responsibility and respect. Learn how to positively address emerging issues such as student diversity, inclusion, and heterogeneous grouping. You’ll achieve higher standards, both in academic and character education, through this insightful and instructional video. 38 minutes. DKB • $70

Visit Us Online! www.KaganOnline.com